Re: Mortgage-Backed Trusts Missing Critical Documents

Dear Chairman Schapiro and Director Khuzami::

This is a report of suspected fraud involving mortgage-back securities. Certain mortgage-backed trusts have been using forged and fraudulent mortgage assignments in foreclosure actions in Florida, and throughout the United States.

These assignments are most often produced by employees of Lender Processing Services, Inc., ("LPS"), a mortgage default management company located in Jacksonville, FL. LPS produced several million Mortgage Assignments, using its own employees to sign as if they were officers of the original lenders. The fraud includes:

- Mortgage assignments with forged signatures of the individuals signing on behalf of the grantors, and forged signatures of the witnesses and the notaries;
- Mortgage assignments with signatures of individuals signing as corporate officers for corporations that never employed them in any such capacity;
- Mortgage assignments prepared and signed by individuals as corporate officers of mortgage companies that had been dissolved by bankruptcy years prior to the Assignment;
- Mortgage assignments prepared with purported effective dates unrelated to the date of any actual or attempted transfer (and in the case of trusts, years after the closing date of the trusts);
- Mortgage assignments prepared on behalf of grantors who had never themselves acquired ownership of the mortgages and notes by a valid transfer, including numerous such assignments where the grantor was identified as "Bogus Assignee for Intervening Assignments;" and
- Mortgage assignments notarized by notaries who never witnessed the signatures that they notarized.

Trust officers used these fraudulent mortgage assignments to conceal the fact that the trusts are missing critical documents, namely, the mortgage assignments that were supposed to have been delivered to the trusts at the inception of the trust.

These trusts suffered the following economic harm:

The Trusts paid substantial fees to the Trustees for Document Custodial Services including fees for obtaining and retaining a Mortgage Assignment for each of the properties in the trust. The Assignment was supposed to have been “in recordable form” – that is, legally sufficient to allow the Trustee to foreclose in the event of default. These services were never provided. In each trust identified herein, many if not all of the Mortgage Assignments were never obtained, or were obtained and lost.

Because the Assignments were not obtained and/or retained, the Trusts incurred significant additional expenses:

- i) each Trust paid, and will continue to pay, hundreds of thousands of dollars in fees to mortgage servicers, document preparation companies and law firms to prepare and record “Replacement Assignments” including Assignments that were prepared with false information regarding dates and signers;
- ii) each Trust paid, and will continue to pay, hundreds of thousands of dollars in fees to the default management company and to law firms retained by the mortgage servicing companies and/or default management company (usually, Lender Processing Services) to litigate the issue of the standing of the trust to file the foreclosure action because the Assignment to the Trust that established standing was missing or never obtained.

In many cases, because the Assignments were not obtained and/or retained, the Trust could not successfully foreclose when loans in the Trust defaulted. In many cases, where the Trust has successfully foreclosed, it had no legal right to do so and the Trust has been or will be exposed to claims for wrongful foreclosure by former homeowners and claims of fraud by subsequent purchasers. In many cases, where mortgage servicing companies or law firms representing the Trust attempted to collect amounts due from defaulting homeowners of properties in the trust, the debt collection activities violated the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act because the Trust had no right to pursue collection or foreclosure where it lacked a valid Assignment.

In many cases, particularly where the loan originator is a mortgage company that is no longer in existence, it may not be possible to ever obtain a valid Assignment to the Trust. Long after the Trustees and Servicers became aware that critical documents, the Assignments, were missing, the Trustees and Servicers failed to disclose that information to the Certificate Holders and to the SEC.

Attached hereto are examples of fraudulent Assignments. Many (over 100,000) of these are signed by Linda Green. From an examination of the signatures, it is apparent that many different employees signed the name Linda Green.

Job Titles attributed to Green include the following:

- Vice President, Loan Documentation, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., successor by merger to Wells Fargo Home Mortgage, Inc.;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for American Home Mortgage Acceptance, Inc.;
- Vice President, American Home Mortgage Servicing as successor-in-interest to Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for American Brokers Conduit;
- Vice President & Asst. Secretary, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc., as servicer for Ameriquest Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for HLB Mortgage;
- Vice President, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc.;

- Vice President, Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., as nominee for Family Lending Services, Inc.;
- Vice President, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. as successor-in-interest to Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Argent Mortgage Company, LLC by Citi Residential Lending Inc., attorney-in-fact;
- Vice President, Sand Canyon Corporation f/k/a Option One Mortgage Corporation;
- Vice President, Amtrust Funsing (sic) Services, Inc., by American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. as Attorney-in-fact; and
- Vice President, Seattle Mortgage Company.

Other LPS employees similarly used job many different job titles and claimed to be officers of many different mortgage companies on Mortgage Assignments. Korell Harp and Tywana Thomas used a variety of conflicting job titles on Assignments of Mortgages in 2008 and 2009, holding themselves out to be officers of numerous different banks and mortgage-related entities, often using numerous conflicting titles in the same week.

Titles attributed to Korell Harp include Vice President of American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. as successor-in-interest to Option One Mortgage Corporation; Vice President of American Brokers Conduit; Vice President of Argent Mortgage Company, LLC; and Vice President of Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc.

Titles attributed to Tywana Thomas include Assistant Vice President of Option One Mortgage Corporation, Assistant Vice President of American Home Mortgage Servicing, Assistant Vice President of Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Assistant vice President of Argent Mortgage Company, LLC, Assistant Vice President of Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, Assistant Vice President of Sand Canyon Corporation and Assistant Vice President of American Home Mortgage Acceptance.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. While I am concerned about the defrauded investors, particularly the pension funds that have invested in these trusts, I am also concerned about the homeowners who are losing their homes to bank/trustees who use these Assignments without disclosing the issue of the missing Trust documents.

Yours truly,
Lynn E. Szymoniak, Esq.
